

VIRGINIA ARTS AND SPORTS ASSOCIATION (VASA) REGISTRATION

VASA is a training center that is focused on development of amateur performing artists, competitive cheerleaders and competitive dancers. VASA strives to give children of the Greater Williamsburg and surrounding communities an enriched educational experience through the study and performances of Cheerleading, Dance, and Musical Theater.

We invite you to visit VASA's gym to learn about the program's approach, teams, coaches and meet the Artistic Director of American Glory Allstars Competitive Teams and Performance Groups. VASA is open to associate, general, individual, corporate and honorary members. Definitions as follows:

General member: Individuals that have a child on a Competitive Team or in a performing theater group who also pay dues set forth by VASA and who meet any additional requirements for general membership as may be imposed by the board of directors from time to time.

Individual member: Are the youth members of competitive teams, performance groups whose parents/legal guardian also pay dues set forth by VASA and who meet any additional requirements for individual membership as may be imposed by the board of directors from time to time

Associate member: Individual that participates only in classes that are offered and who are not on a competitive team or performance group, who also pay dues set forth by VASA and who meet any additional requirements for associate membership as may be imposed by the board of directors from time to time.
